

AGENDA

Indigenous participation and collaboration in the new IA system

Context and objectives of the meeting :

- Meeting with Impact Assessment Agency of Canada representatives
- Share with the Impact Assessment Agency the issues and recommendations on First Nations participation in the new impact assessment system
- The following documents are currently under development:
<https://www.canada.ca/en/impact-assessment-agency/services/policy-guidance/practitioners-guide-impact-assessment-act.html>

Introduction
8:30 a.m.	Opening ceremony Welcoming remarks and course of the meeting
9:00 a.m.	Context – Janice Zeitz, IAAC: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Presentation on the new IA system and the place of FNs in the new assessment system ○ What Bill C-69 proposes ○ Mobilization approach ○ Presentation of the guides, policies in development (CIRA) related to each step of the new process
9:45 a.m.	Legal perspective on the implementation of the new federal impact assessment system – Jameela Jerroburkhan, lawyer - TELECONFERENCE
10:15a.m.	Break
10:30 a.m.	Workshops and discussions on participation and collaboration of First Nations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Planning phase ○ Interim guidance: Indigenous participation in Impact Assessment
12:00 p.m.	Lunch
1:30 p.m.	Presentations (IAAC) and discussion session :
	Indigenous Knowledges: strategic framework and upcoming documents
	Approach for the Impact on rights assessment
	Regional assessments – Kevin Blair - TELECONFERENCE
3:00 p.m.	Break
3:15p.m.	Tools of the Agency for working with Indigenous People Next steps
4:30 p.m.	End of the meeting